FOUR EXCITING ON-CAMERA HUNTS

When Richard Nixon was President and Nikita Khrushchev was pounding on the negotiating table with his shoe, who could have conceived that American hunters, during the 20th century, would be able to fly from Anchorage, Alaska to Petropavlovsk, Russia and hunt Brown Bears on the Kamchatka Peninsula with Russian guides?

Bob Kern of The Hunting Consortium arranged and outfitted successful hunts for Russia's big Brown Bears for William "Smitty" Smith, Ken Wilson, Lad Shunneson and Dennis Lord. Wilson also bags a Stone Capercaillie.

Remote camps, snowmobiles, sleds, skis and experienced Russian guides are the keys to the incredible success of these hunts, along with proven outfitting strategies and adventurous hunters.
